

Suggest

And Cuticura Ointment. These gentle emollients do much to soothe tender skins and dispel summer rashes, eczemas, prickly heat, itchings, chafing, sunburn, bites and stings. For everyday use in promoting and maintaining skin and hair health among infants and children, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are most valuable.

Cutiours Boap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Liberal sample of cuch malled free, with 32-p. book. Address "Cutleura," Dept. SG, Boston, as Men who shave and sharpeo with Cutleura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

TEXARKANA BANKER DIES IN BIG SPRINGS

Big Springs, Tex., Aug. 12-T. H. Leeves, a banker, of Texarkana, drooped dead at the Cole hotel this morning at 6:30. He arrived last night, secompanied by his wife and daughter, en route home from a trip to Califor-fornia. The remains were sent this morning to Texarkana for burial.

BRITISH CORPS OF NATIVES

Ostinguished Scholar Undismayed by Discovery and Has Pat Answer forLife Partner.

Which reminds one of the old story, as the gifted after-dinner speaker would say. It matters not how old a story may be, there are always some who have not heard it, and a good story, like a beautiful woman, should never grow old.

It is told that the famous lexicographer, Nonh Webster, invited several men to spend the evening with him at a time when Mrs. Webster happened a time when Mrs. Webster happened to be away on a visit. At rather a late hour Mr. Webster and his friends were enjoying a quiet game of cards and had possibly also enjoyed the contents of a few empty bottles that were strewn about the room. Pipes and cigars were also being indulged in, All of this would have been horrifying to Mrs. Webster, as she did not approve of such practices.

The party was at the height of its

Th eparty was at the height of its enjoyment when a sound of footsteps was heard in the next room. The men hesitated a moment to listen, when the door was suddenly opened by Mrs. Webster, who had unexpectedly returned unannounced. The unusual scars disclosed to her course her to scane disclosed to her caused her to

"Why, Noah. I'm surprised."

Noah sat with his back to the door, but he recognized Mrs. Webster's colce and without turning, he replied:

No. you are astonished. I'm surprised."

We are not all of us well enough acquainted with our dictionaries to draw such a fine line between words which we commonly use to express our meaning. Nor do we all possess a dictionary that is always convenient for use.

The Herald is making a distribution of just such a dictionary as can be used by everybody. It is the New Modern English Illustrated dictionary, with the latest United States census and a fund of other useful information.

If you turn to the dictionary compon printed elsewhere, you will find how you can get The Herald dictionary.

We can sell you say doors at panel door prices. Lander Lumber Co.—Advertisement.

El Paso's Union Men; Personals About the Local Men of Brawn

E. F. West, a former business agent of the El Paso foundry and machine of the Carpenters' union, No. 425, is shops, in the capacity of apprentice. Working for Mr. Morris, in Grand View addition. M. J. Milner, a member of the local Carpenters' union No. 425, has been working on South El Paso street, next to the Fisher hotel, for the past few he Carpenters' union, is erecting a utilding for Ike Alderete on South Campbell street. It is a strictly union

Harry Borcherding, a member of the Harry Borcherding, a member of the Machinists' union at Sherman, Tex., is paying El Paso a few days' visit.

F. F. Tufano, a member of the Barbers' union, has been recently elected secretary-treasurer of the Central union. Fred is very popular among all the union men of El Paso and is expected to "make good."

J. F. Burton, president of the Horseshoers' union, reports that all union horseshoers have all the work that they can possibly do, and new men are joining the union very rapidly. There were two initiated at the last meeting.

were two initiated at the last meeting.

C. H. Escott, a member of the Plumbers' union, is boosting better streets and sidewalks in El Paso.

W. A. Copenhaver, secretary of the El Paso Eagles, who has been in the El Paso sanitarium for the past five months, is improving sufficiently to come fo town, a little.

T. D. Butcher, an active member of the local Flumbers' union, has returned from a five weeks' vacation in Callfornia, and is now back at work for the Mattice Plumbing company. He is residing at the local Y. M. C. A.

Thomas Quigley, president of the El Paso Typographical union, is making a very successful president. His rulings are always strongly supported by the fornia and is now back at work for the Mattlee Plumbing company. He is residing at the local Y. M. C. A.

Thomas Quigley, president of the El Paso Typographical union, is making a very successful president. His rulings are always strongly supported by the local members.

Lester Hitchens has placed his application with the local Machinists' union for membership. He is in the employe

Cloudcroft and Mayhill

dace and Mayhill the line is yet to be Miss M. Iverson and Miss Margaret Iverson, of El Paso, are spending a short time at the Y. W. C. A. vacation cottage,

Miss Bernice Iverson is visiting the family of Mrs. A. L. Hawley, at Sand-view cottage.

Mrs. A. G. Derry returned Monday to El Paso after a visit of some time at the Y. W. C. A. vacation cottage.

A. L. Hawley spent the week end with his family, returning to El Paso Monday.

George Simmen, a former president of Carpenters' union No. 425, has re-turned from a three months' visit in the east. He stopped for a few days at Indianapolis, Ind., Cleveland, Buffala and Galveston, but he spent most of his vacation at his old home in Scran-ton Pa.

Williams, secretary Bricklayers' union, is confined to his Bricklayers' union, is confined to his room on account of sickness.

D. N. Williams, a member of the Barbers' union, has secured a position with the Cactus barber shop.

Among the many unions that are expected to be represented in the Laborday parade are: Printers, Bartenders, Mest Cutters, Butchers, Painters, Brewery Workers and Electrical Workers. These unions have already commenced active work and they expect to make a splendid showing. nenced active work and they expect to nake a splendid showing.

W. Luttinger, a member of Carpen-ers' union No. 425, is now working for W. D. Moseley on South Campbell street. He is acting as foreman on Ike Alderete's building.

J. H. Hilgariner, member of the Ma-

J. H. Hilgartner, member of the Macinists' union, recently returned from a two months' visit in the east. Among the places that he visited were Richmond, Va., and Washington, D. C. C. Dunn, member of the local Electrical, union No. 533, has returned from a week's business trip at Alamogordo, N. M.

E. G. Sheibley, secretary for the Musicians' union has secured a position sicians' union, has secured a position with the Paso del Norte hotel orchestra. Eugene Stevens, a member of the few days' visit with her mother, Mrs. F. C. Murphy, at Leafy Lodge cottage. Charles De Groff, who has been in El Paso for several days, returned to Cloudcroft Monday, bringing his little granddaughter, Ruth Alice Orndorff, with him for a short visit.

with him for a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Moere and daughters, Miss Lasta Moore and Miss Kathleen Moore, of Victoria, Texas, came Monday to spend a few days. If they can secure a cottage they will recurn later in the season for a longer stay.

Mrs. W. A. Doolittle and daughter. Miss Marion Doolittle, of El Paso, are here and will spend two weeks at the Y. W. C. A. vacation cottage.

Mrs. R. W. Fort has gone to El Paso for a few days shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pfaff and family, who have been guests at the Lodge for some time, have returned to El Paso. New System Will Connect Paso.

Mrs. W. H. Aldridge and children, of Aldridge, Tex., have left for El Paso after a week's stay at the Lodge. They will spend some time in El Paso before returning to their home in Ald-

H. F. Baldwin has gone to El Paso H. F. Baldwin has gone to El Paso for a short business trin. He will rejoin his family at the Lodge later on Mise Nellie Sanders and A. M. Rothcock, of Waxahatchie. Tex., were visitors between trains Monday.

P. H. Henderson, of Fort Worth, is an arrival at the Lodge.

Mrs. H. P. Flint, of Alamogordo, N. M., has returned to her home after a month's visit at the Keystone cottage.

Mrs. G. G. Bakofsky won the prize for the highest score in bowling, making 146. Mrs. Victoria Whitmer and Miss Birdle Krupp tied for second prize, with 127 each. W. W. Baird won first for the men, rolling 263, and Elmer Haynes had second place, with 193. with his family, returning to he raso Monday.

Mrs. Hefner and Miss Eva Hefner have returned to El Paso, after spending some time in Cloudcroft.

Charles Levy has returned from El Paso and is visiting the Goodmans in their cottage here.

J. Kaufman has returned to El Paso after spending the week end with the Moyer house party.

Lawrence Calisher will join the Moyer house party today. Miss Loretta Brick, who has been visiting Mrs. J. C. Wilcox, has returned to El Paso.

PORTALES CANTALOUPES

Paso and is visiting the Goodmans in their cottage here.

J. Kaufman has returned to El Paso after spending the week end with the Moyer house party.

Lawrence Calisher will join the Moyer house party today.

A picinc party that walked out to Deer Head Monday and enjoyed lunch among the pines and aspen, was composed of Mrs. J. D. Love and little Cornelia Love, Mrs. J. P. Miller, Felix Miller, Sam Miller and Ivodel Miller, Miller, Sam Miller and Ivodel Miller, Mrs. J. C. Williams and ittle Ruth Williams and Mrs. Adde Hall

Mrs. T. H. Sanders, of El Paso, and her brotherinlaw, W. C. Sanders, of Fort Worth, Texas, are here for a Missouri, Phone 272.—Advertisement.

PORTALES CANTALOUPES

OF VERY FINE FLAVOR

OF VERY FINE FLAVOR

OF VERY FINE PLAVOR

OF YERY FINE PLAVOR

OF YERY FINE PLAVOR

OF YERY FINE PLAVOR

OF YERY FINE PLAVOR

OF Werry Fine to provide Marker Flavor

Warren Compares.

"They talk so blamed much about the beauty of the Seine—well I don't see in the Herald a dozen of very fine cantaloupes, grown on his trigated farm near that place. In size and flavor they are as fine as anything that ever came out of the Rocky Ford district. They are film, mellow and of fine flavor. They are shipped out under the name of 'The Portales Valley Gem, the Cantaloupe of Quality."

Mrs. T. H. Sanders, of El Paso, and her brotherinlaw, W. C. Sanders, of Fort Worth, Texas, are here for a market of the Rocky Ford district. They are shipped out under the name of 'The Portales Valley Gem, the Cantaloupe of Quality."

Mrs. T. H. Sanders, of El Paso, and After Aug. I. Albambra Dalry depot, 1317

E. Missouri, Phone 272.—Advertisement.

Married Life's Troubles

HAT must be the landing down there! I can't see that sign, but I'm sure that's where you get the St. Cloud boats"
"Hadn't you better ask some one."
yentured lielen. "It's so far to go way down there and find it isn't the Helen's Parisian Slippers Spoil the Pleasure of a Trip to St. Cloud.

By Mabel Herbert Urner-

"Out, out, madame," nodded the man, understandingly, while the dog, in spite of his inverted position wagged a friendly tail.

they're too stiff. They hurt in the back at the heel."

"Hump, you ought to know you couldn't get a decent shoe in this country. Why on earth didn't you bring enough with you?

"I did, dear, all except white ones."

"Well, berves you right. They ought to hurt you, if you haven't more sense than to start out on a trip like this with a new pair of shoes."

Paris had been hot, but the Seine was hotter. The sun glittered on the water that was not even ripsied by a breath of air. The iron rail, against which Helen was leaning, almost hurni through her gloves. Would she have to stand on her aching feet in this blazing sun all the way to St. Cloud?

Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt, her baby and the nurse, Alfred G. Van-

Corps of Servants For "Baby" Vanderbilt

"I tell you it is the place," scowled Warren, who always hated to ask his way, and often wore Helen out trying to find a place without guidance. Already they had walked across the Alexandre bridge, and Helen was tired and hot. Her feet ached, too, for she had foolishly started out in a pair of white canvas pumps which she had bought the day before.

A gravel path and stone steps led down to what Warren thought was the boat landing. But evidently it was not in use this season, for the place was deserted except for a man who was shearing a dog in an empty shed.

"I'll be darned!" muttered Warren, looking around the deserted landing." I show those boats used to start from here."

"But it's been seven years the start rem derbift is shown below . New York, Aug. 12.—No baby reyal, no heir to the throne of a great world power receives more cure and attention than does the young 10 months old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Guynne Vanderbit, who have just arrived in America from England. The little family of three are now Installed at the Vanderbilt residence in Newport, where a big staff, including a physician, a head nurse and three assistants and two men servants are in attendance on the baby alone. attendance on the baby alone

"But it's been seven years since you were in Paris," protested Helen. "You can't expect to find everything just the same! Do ask that man where the right landing is—I can't walk much farther." where he was, leaning on his cane by where he was, leaning on his cane by the railing.

As they left the outskirts of Paris, the river grow cleaner and the scenery more attractive. But Halen was too hot and uncomfortable to enjoy or ap-"Well, if it's along here we'll find it," obstinately ignoring her sugges-tion. "There, I see it now! Isn't that a boat just pulling in?"

hot and uncomfortable to enjoy or appreciate the sail.

At last they reached St. Cloud. On the hillside above was a big white hotel, with fluttering flags and white clothed tables on the green hedged veranda and terrace.

"Well, what do you want to do? Walk around and take a look at the viliage—or get a cab here and drive through the park first?"

Helen, whose feet still hurt her, suggested the drive.

Several cabmen, spotting the Americans, were already urging them to their vehicles. Warren put Helen into one of the cabs and told the driver to cake them through the park.

"What's that" as the man began to chatter excitedly. "What in the devil's he trying to say!" For Warren's restaurant French was not equal to this conversation.

Pay in Advance. Helen's heart sank, for the landing Warren pointed to was back beyond the bridge. And it might not be the right one! Determinedly she approached the man with the dog. If Warren would not ask, she would. Not knowing the French for "boat landing," she repeated "St. Cloud, St. Cloud, and pointed to the landing beyond.

of his inverted position wagged a friendly tail.

Warren was already striding back up the stone steps. "Hone you're satisfied," he grumbled, as Helen breathlessly caught up with him. "That's the St. Cloud boat there now. If you hurry we'll get it."

Helen, her shoes hurting her at every step, kept up with Warren's long strides as best she could. As they drew near they could see "St. Cloud" fluttering on a red flag over the boat.

"May have to wait another hour if we don't catch this," called back Warren, running ahead to get the tickets. The boat gave a warning whistle. A man was loosening the chain. Were they going to miss it after all." Warren had the tickets now and was waving them at her! Helen, flushed and breathless, reached the boat only a second before it moved off.

"Whee! That was close," and Warren whed the inside of his hat with his handkerchief. "Pretty good sprint for a hot day."

"Oh, can't you find me a place to sit down?" panted Helen. "My feet hurt so"."

"Don't see any place, do you?" look-Conversation.

Pay in Advance.

The driver finally made them understand they were to pay in advance—two francs, for which he presented them with a ticket, which Helen thought was a sort of receipt.

"Why, dear, that's awfully cheap," as they drove off.

"Oit, all the cabs are much cheaper over here," explained Warren easily. They entered the park by a massive gateway, sentineled by a uniformed soldier. "I say, this is great!" approved Warren. "Look through there! The fellow who laid out these grounds knew his lob.

The driver now slowed up, to give them a better view of a magnificent fountain at the top of a terraced mound.

"Dear, that must be the fountain

"Don't see any place, do you." looking around the crowded boat, on which every seat was taken. "What's the matter with your feet, anyway? You've been hobbling ever since we started." "It's these shoes I bought yesterday. They're plenty big." defiantly, "but they're too stiff. They hurt in the back at the heel." ("Hump, you ownit to know you mound.

"Dear, that must be the fountain which plays every other Sunday. Why didn't 1 bring the Baseleker?"

"Oh, forget your blamed old guidebook and enjoy what you see. By Jove, just look up there?"

In the distance was another fountain center with marble nymphs and flaming flower beds. Helen, with her slipper off, now leaned back and gave horself up to stient enjoyment of it all—the cool shaded groves, the smell of the woods, and the wonderful vistas oned.

through the trees. The whole park was a triumph of landscape art. Every now and then they passed a festive pichic party with lunch spread in some secluded grove. And there were many courts of lawn tennis and other field games, the white outling coslumes of the players gleaming concipiouously against the green back-

SOLLABO CONTRE

"Well, we're getting our two france" worth in this drive, all right. This man's got a pretty big tip coming to

When they had driven entirely around the great park, they again drew up before the impressive iron gate, which the soldier swung open.

"We don't want to go back to the station yet. Let's get out here and go up to the hotel and have a drink. How about having dinner there?" and Warren motioned to the driver to let them out. "Er? What's that? Now what's be after?" as the driver stared at his tip. climbed down from his seat, and excitedly pointed to a taximeter in front, which they had not seen before.

"Well, what in thunder did we pay that two francs for," demanded War-ren, glancing at the taximeter which registered over seven franca. "If you think you've got a sucker here, you're wrong. You made us pay in advance, and that's all you'll get."

Here the soldier at the gate, over-hearing the dispute, came out and ex-plained to Warren, in halting English, Explanations.

"Oh. If that's the way of it, all light," as Warren paid the seven rance, fifty. "But why in the deviludn't he say so." "Why, that's exorbitant," protested Helen indignantly, as they started up the hill to the hotel. "That makes the drive almost is francs."

"If that's their regular rate that's all right. All I want to know is that I'm not being held up. Now what? Want to go to the hotel for dinner tow? Or take a walk around the vilage first?"

"I'm afraid I can't walk very far." lage first?"

"I'm afraid I can't walk very far," faltered Helen.

"By George, you're a fine traveler, you are." in a tone of disgust. "Not much pleasure going anywhere with you. You're either too tired, or too hot, or your feet hurt—or some blamed thing's the matter. Come on then, we'll have dinner. Think you can sit up and take nourishment."

HAYTIENS SHOOT INTO CASKET AT FUNERAL OF PRESIDENT

New York, Aug. 12.-Instead of presenting arms when ordered to do so, the military escort to the body of Tancrede Auguste, late president of Hayti, aimed their rifles at the casket and riddled it with bullets, according to Marfield Kemp, of Lexington, Ind., a young engineer employed by the National railroad of Hayti, who reached here from Port Au Prince today. The here from Port Au Prince today. The shooting occurred in the cathedral of St. Mary at the conclusion of a funeral service of great solemnity and in the presence of hundreds of persons. Mr. Kemp was one of a party of Americans ac said, who attended the funeral.

This outrage was one of many discussions.

This outrage was one of many dis-orders occuring in Port Au Prince on the day of the funeral, Mr. Kemp said. He added that president Auguste had made many political enemies and that it was generally reported, but without confirmation, that he had been pois-

The Best Food-Drink Lunch at Fountains

Insist Upon

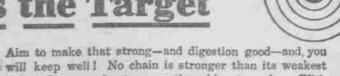

Avoid Imitations-Take No Substitute

Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form. More healthful than tea or coffee. For infants, invalids and growing children. Agrees with the weakest digestion Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body. Keep it on your sideboard at home

Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged. A quick lunch prepared in a minute,

With Country Homes. Cloudcroft, N. M., Aug. 12.—It is expected that the telephone line to connect Cloudcroft with Mayhill will be completed in a very short time. The line is beling iaid by a private company, but will have connections with the Bell phones in Cloudcroft and the long distance. Almost all of the farmers down James canyon are having phones installed. The line has been completed past Ell Mosler's place, and also A. J. Posey's. It has been carried as far as W. Hixson's place down James canyon. Between Charley Bell's place, and Mayhill the line is yet to be BOY AND TWO HORSES KILLED BY LIGHTNING Aden, Arabia, Aug. 12.—It is reportated here that a British camel corps, tonsisting of India natives has been tut up in a fight in Somaliland. Three hundred troops have been sent from here to the scene of the trouble. Although BY BIGHTNING Duncan, Ariz., Aug. 12.—Willie Tibbetts, residing four miles east of this place, was killed by lightning during an electrical storm yesterday afternoon. The borse he was riding, and also the one he was leading, were both killed.

The Stomach Is the Target link. No man is stronger than his stomach. With stomach disordered a train of diseases follow.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

makes the stomach healthy, the liver active and the blood pure. Made from forest roots, and extracted without the use of alcohol. Sold by droggists, in liquid form at $1.09 per bottle for over 40 years, giving general satisfaction.

If you prefer tablet: as modified by B. V. Pierce, M. D., these can be had of medicine dealers or trial box by mail on receipt of 50c in stamps.